

I oppose this proposal because it will allow consolidation of corporate power in news media. Critical and diverse news media is essential for a healthy democracy. Allowing all our information to be controlled by a small number of broadcasting giants will not facilitate diversity or accuracy in our news.